APAC Tenders

Letter from the Editor

Dear Readers,

As a leading voice in the Asia-Pacific procurement sector, APAC Tenders continues to build on the success of Pacific Tenders Magazine, which has become a trusted resource for businesses across the Pacific Islands, this change expands our coverage to encompass the dynamic and rapidly growing APAC region.

We provide critical insights into technology and modern best practices on procurement and supply chain management and understanding the nuances of public-private partnerships in infrastructure development.

Drawing on the legacy of Pacific Tenders Magazine, which has connected businesses with multi-million dollars worth of tenders and achieved a readership of thousands across countries in The Asia Pacific region, APAC Tenders is dedicated to providing you with the knowledge and tools you need to navigate the complexities of public procurement and secure lucrative contracts.

We value your engagement and invite you to share your insights. Help us to continually improve and deliver the most relevant content for your success.

Sincerely,

Douglas Saefoa
Editor, APAC Tenders
